On June 12, 2012, Common Cause, Wisconsin Democracy Campaign and Progress Now launched Recall Scott Walker 2012, an effort to recall Scott Walker from office. The effort to recall the governor was launched with over 100,000 signatures on petitions demanding that Scott Walker be recalled from office. The recall effort is organized as a nonpartisan campaign that is citizen-led and demands a recall election. Wisconsin residents can submit signatures online at "Scott Walker is attempting to strip the rights of Wisconsin workers and the poor and replace them with harsh and biased cuts that are leaving our state in a worse financial situation than when he came to office," said Kurt Walters, Executive Director of Common Cause Wisconsin. "As governor, he has let his extreme agenda run roughshod over the rights of Wisconsin citizens. Governor Walker's track record of pushing extreme and unpopular agenda in Wisconsin is what led to the citizen-led recall campaign." Governor Scott Walker supports the implementation of severe cuts and tax breaks that primarily affect working families and the middle class. Walker also supported the elimination of the death penalty for the rich and powerful and has refused to take action to protect consumers and the environment. His agenda is unpopular with most Wisconsinites and his track record as governor is one of subversion and suppression. Common Cause's mission is to educate, inform and lead the public in the effort to achieve good government and promote civic virtue. Common Cause is a
