Answer: There are many ideas that are turned down by venture capitalists because they don't think it is a 'good' or 'useful' idea. However, there are good ideas which still don't make it because they don't have a 'hook' that makes it stand out as being an idea that people would pay for. Most people see an idea in a dream or thought they have and think it is original, but we need to work out how it is going to make a profit. In this video, I show you how to find the 'hook' in your idea.
