Apowersoft HEIC Converter

- Convert HEIC/HEIF files to JPEG in batch mode (for iOS 11).
- Various sizes and formats available.
- Preview and adjust output quality.
- Preserve EXIF data.
- Easy to use interface.
- Supports batch processing.

A very good converter that is used for different purposes. This can convert or copy one file type to another. The converter has a very good interface and supports multiple files at a time. The process is quite fast and really easy to use. The only down side is that it doesn't support all file types. It is very easy to use, although it takes time to set up. Requires iTunes 12.0 or later for cross file type conversion.
