It is very reliable and quick to start. The power seats are a nice feature. I love the back up camera, cruise control and voice recognition. The only negative thing I have with this car is that there is no tilt and cruise controls in the back seat which cause some additional problems. Avg. Dealer Rating: (1 review) "Contacted them last week about a 2002 Ford Taurus V6, they only had one today, and it was a vehicle that they sold. They also had a 2005 Ford Expedition on display, had not been driven much and was a reasonable price to purchase."Elam Sam Elam Sam (born 2 January 1980) is a former Zimbabwean cricketer. the rest of the cast have been working on the movie pretty quietly in the New Orleans area as the production wraps up in the coming weeks. And while I can't tell you much more, but it sounds like it's a really good piece of filmmaking. I didn't think much of the reboot because I grew up being on the late side of horror with New Line films. Up until some of the newer films I enjoyed horror of all types. These days I can't even tell what kind of movie it is because the stuff seems to be too predictable. I am a sucker for a good ghost story! Of course even the horror in these days can be over the top. Saw can be a scary movie or a comedy I guess. I liked Halloween and the first 4 Friday the 13th's until they strayed too far from the box office success of the first one. I always wonder about the quality of this blog. I don't know if there's a higher proportion of horror fans here or if it's just people who enjoy the genre and that's why they show up. The only thing I can tell you is that horror fans exist here and are really good at keeping on top of things as it pertains to horror. Maybe they have better record of quality horror than the regular big name channels. YES! Even though it's kinda been a while since I've posted anything about this film, it truly is one of the best movies I've ever seen. And it could not have come at a better time for me personally (having just turned a big 40)...this movie will be one I refer to for years to come. I've actually posted about it in the past
